TITLE IX

HISTORY OF TITLE IX AND ATHLETICS

- Athletics is not mentioned in the 1972 Title IX statute
- Proposed regulations (1974) did and created a fire-storm
- Regulations passed in 1975 and athletics was given three years to comply
- Dec. 11, 1979, HEW issued the “Intercollegiate Athletics Policy Interpretation”
 - Contained the “Three-Part Test” to determine Title IX compliance with student interests and abilities

Civil Rights Restoration Act restored Title IX's application to athletics

1984

Grove City College v. Bell exempted most athletic programs from Title IX

1988

1990s

The OCR studied the efficacy of the Three-Part Test and institutions' compliance with it “Clarification on Intercollegiate Athletics Policy Guidance: The Three-Part Test”

1996

2003

The OCR again examined the Three-Part Test and restated that it remained unchanged

NAME, IMAGE, AND LIKENESS

- Individuals can engage in name, image, and likeness (NIL) activities that are consistent with the law of the state where the school is located. Colleges and universities may be a resource for state law questions.
- College athletes who attend a school in a state without an NIL law can engage in this type of activity without violating NCAA rules related to name, image, and likeness.
- Individuals can use a professional services provider for NIL activities.
- Student-athletes should report NIL activities consistent with state law or school and conference requirements to their school.

TITLE IX AND ATHLETICS

Three-Part Test and the 13 program components are typically not as problematic for Intramurals and Club Sports because those programs are typically self-initiated and fewer benefits are provided by the institution

EQUALITY

requires a level playing field that doesn't yet exist

JUSTICE

eliminates systemic barriers

The journey starts by asking those affected how they see and are impacted by the conditions, rules, and resources.

EQUITY

acknowledges systemic impediments with targeted fixes

AGENCY

individuals know that access is their right

Title IX requires an institution to:

- Provide equal opportunities for female and male students to become intercollegiate athletes
 - Analyzed by means of a three-part test (“prongs”)
- Provide equitable treatment of participants in the overall women’s program as compared to the overall men’s program
 - Analyzed according to thirteen (13) different program components (The “Laundry List”)

Source: Bonnette, V.M. (2004), Title IX and Intercollegiate Athletics, p.7.

Title IX does not require an institution to:

- Provide the same funding to the overall women's and men's programs
- Provide the same funding to men's and women's teams for the same sport
- Provide specific benefits to teams
- Offer the same number of teams for men and women
- Offer the same sports for men and women
- Provide the same benefits to men's and women's teams in the same sport
- Compete at a specific level

Source: Bonnette, V.M. (2004), Title IX and Intercollegiate Athletics, p.7.

ATHLETIC OVERSIGHT – GENDER EQUITY

- The oversight of compliance remains the responsibility of the Institution's Title IX Coordinator (TIXC)
- Compliance in athletics may be delegated to the Senior Woman Administrator (SWA = NCAA distinction) or compliance officer in athletics
 - Need for outside education on the various areas of TIX
- Institutions should have a Deputy TIXC in athletics
 - Athletics Deputy TIXC should not be the Recipient's TIXC

THE THREE-PART TEST: ACCOMMODATION OF INTERESTS AND ABILITIES

- Proportionality
- Program Expansion
- Full Accommodation

THREE-PART TEST (1979)

Effective accommodation of interests and abilities

Opportunities for males and females substantially proportionate to their respective enrollments; OR

2

Where one sex has been underrepresented, a history and continuing practice of program expansion responsive to the developing interests and abilities of that sex; OR

Where one sex is underrepresented and cannot show a continuing practice of program expansion, whether it can be demonstrated that the interests and abilities of that sex have been fully and effectively accommodated by that present program

COUNTING PARTICIPANTS

- For purposes of Title IX compliance, a participant is defined as those athletes who:
 - Regularly receive institutionally sponsored support normally provided to athletes
 - Regularly participate in organized practices or team meetings and activities during the season
 - Are listed on the eligibility or squad list
 - Are injured, but continue to receive financial aid on the basis of athletic ability

Source: HEW (1979). Intercollegiate Athletics Policy Interpretation.

- Participants also include those who:
 - Are listed on a team's squad or eligibility list AND are on the team as of the team's first competitive event
 - Join the team during the season*
 - Are a walk-on
 - Are a member of the JV, freshman, "B" team, etc.
 - Quit or were cut after the first competitive event
 - Are a Redshirt athlete
 - Are a mid-year transfer eligible to participate in the spring

*Season begins on the date of a team's first intercollegiate competitive event and concludes on the date of the final intercollegiate competitive event.

Sources: HEW (1979). Intercollegiate Athletics Policy Interpretation; OCR (1996). Clarification of Intercollegiate Athletics Policy Guidance: The Three-Part Test; Bonnette, pp. 91-92.

- The following are not participants:
 - Unfilled team slots or positions
 - Club, intramural and recreation program participants
 - Cheerleaders*
 - Athletes who quit or are cut BEFORE first competitive event of the season
 - Sport participants out of season (e.g., spring football)
 - Scrimmage or practice squads
 - Student managers,* student coaches,* student trainers*
 - Students who are academically ineligible
 - Mid-year transfers if no spring season

*Even if they receive scholarships

OCR (1996). Clarification of Intercollegiate Athletics Policy Guidance: The Three-Part Test; Bonnette, pp. 91-92.

PART 1: PROPORTIONALITY

Opportunities for males and females substantially proportionate to their respective enrollments

- Substantially proportionate accounts for natural fluctuations in enrollment and participation rates, but institutions must adjust if shifted enrollment or participation shifts persist
- The OCR uses a case-by-case analysis, rather than a rigid statistical requirement (e.g., within 1% of student body)
- The OCR would also consider opportunities to be substantially proportionate when the number of opportunities that would be required to achieve proportionality would not be sufficient to sustain a viable team

Source: OCR (1996). Clarification of Intercollegiate Athletics Policy Guidance: The Three-Part Test.

PART 2: PROGRAM EXPANSION

History and continuing practice of program expansion responsive to the developing interests and abilities of the underrepresented sex

In analyzing a history of program expansion, the OCR considers:

- An institution's record of adding intercollegiate teams, or upgrading teams to intercollegiate status, for the underrepresented sex
- An institution's record of increasing the numbers of participants in intercollegiate athletics who are members of the underrepresented sex

Source: OCR (1996). Clarification of Intercollegiate Athletics Policy Guidance: The Three-Part Test.

- An institution's affirmative responses to requests by students or others for addition or elevation of sports
- An institution's current implementation of a nondiscriminatory policy or procedure for requesting the addition of sports (including the elevation of club or intramural teams) and the effective communication of the policy or procedure to students
- An institution's current implementation of a plan of program expansion that is responsive to developing interests and abilities

Source: OCR (1996). Clarification of Intercollegiate Athletics Policy Guidance: The Three-Part Test.

PART 3: FULL ACCOMMODATION

Whether it can be demonstrated that the interests and abilities of that sex have been fully and effectively accommodated by that present program

The OCR will consider whether:

- There is sufficient unmet interest to support an intercollegiate team
- There is sufficient ability to sustain an intercollegiate team
- There is a reasonable expectation of competition for the team

Source: OCR (1996). Clarification of Intercollegiate Athletics Policy Guidance: The Three-Part Test.

LEVELS OF COMPETITION

- Equivalently Advanced Competitive Opportunities
- Upgrades of Competitive Opportunities

LEVELS OF COMPETITION

The OCR assesses compliance by examining:

- Whether the competitive schedules for men's and women's teams, on a program-wide basis, afford proportionally similar numbers of male and female athletes equivalently advanced competitive opportunities

OR

- Whether the institution can demonstrate a history and continuing practice of upgrading the competitive opportunities available to the historically disadvantaged sex as warranted by developing abilities among the athletes of that sex

Source: HEW (1979). Intercollegiate Athletics Policy Interpretation.

ATHLETIC FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE

- Financial Assistance
- Counting Participants for Financial Assistance

FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE

- Must provide reasonable opportunities for financial assistance to members of each sex in proportion to the participation rate of each sex in intercollegiate athletics
 - Does NOT require same number of scholarships for men and women or scholarship of equal value
- Total amount awarded must be “substantially proportionate to the participation rates” of men and women in the institution’s athletic programs
- Disparities could be non-discriminatory in origin
 - E.g., in-state vs. out-of-state recruits; reasonable professional decisions
- Also applies to work-related aid programs or loans

Source: HEW (1979). Intercollegiate Athletics Policy Interpretation.

MULTI-SPORT ATHLETES AND FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE

- There is a different standard for counting multi-sport athletes for scholarship participants than for all other forms of Title IX analyses.
- Scholarship counting
 - An athlete who participates in multiple sports is counted as only ONE scholarship.
 - Based on total program participation, not individual team analysis.
 - Typically, does not matter for which team the student is counted.
 - All other forms of Title IX analysis.
 - An athlete who participates in multiple sports is counted as a participant for each sport.

- Whether the differences in benefits, opportunities, and treatment afforded prospective student athletes of each sex have a disproportionately limiting effect upon the recruitment of students of either sex

Source: HEW (1979). Intercollegiate Athletics Policy Interpretation.

SUPPORT SERVICES

The administrative and clerical support provided to an athletic program can affect the overall provision of opportunity to male and female athletes, particularly to the extent that the provided services enable coaches to perform better their coaching functions.

- Amount of secretarial and clerical assistance provided to men's and women's programs

NCAA & SEXUAL VIOLENCE

The Executive Committee expects NCAA members to... operate fairly and ethically, and further to assure that student-athletes are neither advantaged nor disadvantaged by special treatment and that institutions' athletics departments must:

- Comply with campus authorities and ensure that all athletics staff, coaches, administrators and student-athletes maintain a hostile-free environment for all student-athletes regardless of gender or sexual orientation
- know and follow campus protocol for reporting incidents of sexual violence
- report immediately any suspected sexual violence to appropriate campus offices for investigation and adjudication

- Educate all student-athletes, coaches, and staff about sexual violence prevention, intervention and response
- Assure compliance with all federal and applicable state regulations related to sexual violence prevention and response
- Cooperate with but not manage, direct, control, or interfere with college or university investigations into allegations of sexual violence ensuring that investigations involving student-athletes and athletics department staff are managed in the same manner as all other students and staff on campus

2. The institutional policies and processes regarding sexual violence prevention and adjudication, and the name and contact information for the campus Title IX Coordinator*, are readily available within the department of athletics, and are provided to student-athletes.

*For international members and schools that do not receive federal funding, or are otherwise exempt from Title IX, the signature should be from the Title IX coordinator or institutional staff member with comparable responsibilities

3. All student-athletes, coaches and staff have been educated each year on sexual violence prevention, intervention and response, to the extent allowable by state law and collective bargaining agreements.
4. All incoming, continuing and transfer student-athletes have completed an annual disclosure related to their conduct that resulted in discipline through a Title IX proceeding or in a criminal conviction for sexual, interpersonal or other acts of violence. Transfer student-athletes also must disclose whether a Title IX proceeding was incomplete at the time of transfer. Failure to make a full and accurate disclosure could result in penalties, including loss of eligibility to participate in athletics as determined by the member institution.

A person who has been disciplined through a Title IX proceeding or criminally convicted, regardless of the degree, and whether the result of a plea or court determination, of either of the following:

Interpersonal Violence: Violence that is predominantly caused due to the relationship between the victim and the perpetrator, including dating and domestic violence.

Sexual Violence: A term used to include both forcible and nonforcible sex offenses, ranging from sexual battery to rape.

Other Acts of Violence: Crimes including murder, manslaughter, aggravated assault or any assault that employs the use of a deadly weapon or causes serious bodily injury.

5. Institutions have taken reasonable steps to confirm whether incoming, continuing and transfer student-athletes have been disciplined through a Title IX proceeding or criminally convicted of sexual, interpersonal or other acts of violence. In a manner consistent with federal and state law, all NCAA member institutions must share relevant discipline information and incomplete Title IX proceedings as a result of transfer with other member institutions when a student-athlete attempts to enroll in a new college or university.

Source: NCAA Policy to Combat Campus Sexual Violence.

6. An institution choosing to recruit an incoming student-athlete or accept a transfer student-athlete must have a written procedure that directs its staff to gather information that reasonably yields information from the former institution(s) to put the recruiting institutional leadership on notice that the student left the institution with an incomplete Title IX proceeding, was disciplined through a Title IX proceeding or has a criminal conviction for sexual, interpersonal or other acts of violence. Failure to have it written and to gather information consistent with that procedure could result in penalties.

MANAGING DATING RELATIONSHIPS AMONG TEAMMATES

Frame intra-team dating as part of broader relationship management issues that can distract a team from their competitive goals, such as:

- Heterosexual dating on a mixed team
